The WYO Theater provides entertainment with a vast spectrum of performers across the globe. Located in Sheridan's historic downtown district, the theater offers live performances and a variety of shows. . . something to make you laugh, sing, warm your heart or take your breath away.

Throughout the years the theater underwent changes in name, de'cor or use, and has always remained an integral part of the community of Sheridan. When the dream became reality in 1989, the newly renovated art deco WYO Theater opened its doors to once again serve the residents of the community as the oldest operating Vaudeville Theater in Wyoming.

Special live performance events abound at the WYO Theater in Sheridan during the 2009 - 10 season, including many returning artists; local talent and children's educational & family series.
