Big West Arts Festival to bring artists nationwide to Sheridan. . . August 4th and 5th the Sheridan College campus becomes a metropolis of culinary, visual and performing art as the second annual Big West Arts Festival unites artists to showcase their diverse and vibrant talent.

This festival will delight the senses as the canopied campus becomes a stage for exciting artwork, fun children activities, delicious fine culinary faire and lively entertainment for the two days in the #1 Western Town in America.

The juried event takes place from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on August 4 and 5 and features the work of 50 selected visual artists, 15 selected culinary artists, and over 20 live musical performances.

The event is free to the public, who are invited to come view the artwork, get a taste of culinary specialties and enjoy live musical and dance entertainment.

"It's really a positive thing for Sheridan College to show our support for art by hosting the Big West Arts Festival," President of Sheridan College Dr. Kevin Drumm said. "Sheridan College is invested in all aspects of art, and this event is our way of bringing together local and national artists in an entertaining and active setting." Drumm hopes to see the Big West Arts Festival grow into one of the premier annual arts shows in the west.

Those who are interested in learning more about the event or artists interested in submitting an application for admission into the Big West Arts Festival, visit the Big West Arts Festival web site at: www.bigwestartsfestival.com or contact Dugal at 674-6446, ext. 3508, or Hildebrand at 674-6446, ext. 3004.
