

SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Howdy %%FIRST:Partner%%

Enjoy the Colorful Cultures, Commerce and Characters of Sheridan County and Big Horn Mountain area history as presented by the Sheridan County Museum. Visitors are offered a local perspective on the history of the American West and special activities for children and families are available.

Located directly on the emigrant route of the old Bozeman Trail, Sheridan County is central to some of the most dramatic events of western history. The Museum is located at 850 Sibley Circle on the 5th Street exit to the town of Sheridan---the FIRST town selected by True West magazine as the original "#1 Western Town in America."

equipment, plus the story and photos of nationally famed western photographer, Elsa Spear Byron; and on the porch, sculptures from John Kuchera's Lewis and Clark Collection.

A museum store, theater, and information on area sites, businesses and events are available at the museum, located in a fabulous log building overlooking the Big Horn Mountains on East 5th Street, directly off exit 23 from I-90. Enjoy the views and activities on the deck as well!

Come and explore the Museum daily with summer hours from 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. Admission is $4 for adults, $3 for seniors, $2 for students, and free for all children under 12.
