Some of the biggest names in polo return to Flying H Ranch for 16 – 20 goal polo as a continuation of the NAPL polo season in the US. American greats Owen Rhinhart and Julio Arellano join fellow professional polo stars Nacho

Astrada and Sanitago Trots. NAPL goal scorer of the year Julio returns to play in the US following the last three months playing high goal polo in England. Undeterred, the Flying H team is ready for action with 6 – 8 teams playing in the next 6 weeks of polo.

Jackie Walters from Sheridan, WY said: "It is such a treat to have this level of polo played right here on our doorstep. We take family and friends to enjoy a great day out – perfect for entertaining".

Highlights of the season include the NAPL Skeeter Johnston Memorial Cup & The Flying H Cup, which are being played in the last two weeks of August. Six teams are expected to play for the closely fought trophy, some of which are Bendabout, Mt. Brilliant & Isla Carroll.
