

SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Howdy %%FIRST:Partner%%

Relax and enjoy this wonderful place . . . The nearby majestic Big Horn Mountains offer a year-round paradise for outdoor adventurers, ranging from blue ribbon fishing to wildlife and flora viewing! Or catch a hunting season in these golden hills . . .

Anglers Paradise - With 106 million acres of Bighorn National Forest encompassing 180,000 acres of wilderness, encounter tranquil, secluded streams and some of the finest fishing around. Those wild waters, along with trophy reservoirs and private streams and ponds, provide ample opportunity to test your mettle against a variety of trout. Maybe cast the broad Tongue River or the mighty Big Horn, just a few miles away.

Prized Hunting Grounds - And the new and return hunters to the region are welcomed into a hunting abundance! The Sheridan area is the last most prized hunting grounds of the native American, with this long and rich tradition of hunting and boasts an abundance and diversity of big game, while comprised of public and private lands which are both integral to maintaining the myriad of wildlife species for which we are known.
