

SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Howdy %%FIRST:Partner%%

Celebrate a bit of the Old West meets New West in the heart of Wyoming's cowboy country. Sheridan voted for the third consecutive year in the 'Top Towns for Outdoorsmen', is where recreation opportunities abound! And there's not a better time to enjoy them . . .

Plan your Vacation:

Rock Climbing opportunities are stellar in this area with premier ops at Steamboat Rock on top of the Big Horn Mountains and Tongue River Canyon, both a short drive from town. Join other outdoor aficionados to challenge yourself in new locations around Sheridan.

Golfers find Sheridan a paradise of opportunity for all levels of expertise. Dubbed Wyoming's Golf Capitol, Sheridan offers four championship courses within a 35-mile radius:

- The Powder Horn's 27-hole championship course rated in GolfWeek's top 100
- Kendrick's 18 hole course rated in the top 5 courses in Wyoming by Golf Digest magazine
- Sheridan Country Club
- Buffalo Course

Hang gliding is popular as well, beginning in the spring all the way into late fall . . . when the weather and air drafts are just right, daredevils enjoy jumping into thin air off the face of the magnificent Big Horn Mountains. Spectators may watch and photograph hang gliders from across the nation as they soar above and beyond the Mountains at Sand Turn, west of Sheridan. The Hang Gliders Fly-In takes place again over Labor Day weekend to kick-off the Fall.
