

SHERIDAN, WYOMING

Howdy %%FIRST:Partner%%

What draws young cowboys and girls to the eighteenth annual Elks Youth Rodeo in Sheridan Wyoming, at the Sheridan County Fairgrounds the weekend prior to Labor Day weekend?

Major draws to competitors from all over the region are the opportunity to win a year lease on a new Ford F250 four-wheel drive XLT quadcab diesel pickup, which is awarded to the senior all-round champion. Megan Belus of Buffalo, Wyoming was the 2009 winner of the use of the pickup. And secondly, a trailer for the youth all-around winner, which in 2009 was Quincy Segelke of Snyder, Colorado. Juniors, intermediates and seniors are all eligible to win the trailer, which is determined by the total points each contestant earns.

Third, this event is the toughest youth (17 and under) competition with the best awards ($55,600 cash/awards), in 26 events attracting 750 entries daily. The rodeo runs in three arenas simultaneously, providing an amazing show of non-stop action for spectators! Come experience the best times of the season at this show, highlighting the unbelievable talents of youth competitors, beginning at 8:00 a.m. August 28th and 29th.

Peewee events, children as young as two and a half, are pole bending, barrel racing and goat tail tying . . .
