A GUIDE TO THE ICONS & OUTLAWS OF SHERIDAN, WY

The world comes out west expecting to see cowboys driving horses through the streets of downtown; pronghorn butting heads on windswept bluffs; clouds encircling the towering granite pinnacles of the Bighorn Mountains; and endless expanses of wild, open country. What you may not have been expecting when you came way out West was a thriving, historic downtown district, with western allure, hospitality and good graces to spare; a vibrant art scene; bombastic craft culture; a robust festival and events calendar; and living history on every corner.

ONE DAY IN THE WILD

MORNING

The Bighorn Mountains have been at the center of the essential Sheridan experience for generations. The mountains boast secluded canyons, miles of hiking, biking and riding trails, secret fishing holes, epic climbing lines, and so much more.

Consider renting a bike, stocking up on backpacking or climbing gear, tying a few flies, or purchasing other outdoor essentials from one of our outstanding outfitters. These include Sheridan Bicycle Co., The Sport Stop, Rocky Mountain Discount Sports, the Fly Shop of the Bighorns, and more.

Jumpstart your day of outdoor adventure with a breakfast at the Shabby Shack (the peaches and cream French toast are a local favorite), or Andi's Coffee, then drive out to Highway 14 toward Dayton; the beautiful Town of Dayton is the gateway to the Tongue River Canyon. The canyon features a long in-and-out multi-purpose adventure trail, swimming and fishing holes, and some of the finest views in all of Wyoming. Here you'll experience a little of what racers endure during the annual Bighorn Trail Run.

Further along scenic Highway 14, up and into the mountains, you'll come to Steamboat Point, one of Sheridan County's most recognizable natural icons. If you're fortunate enough to be in Sheridan late in the spring, the wildflowers at Steamboat are stunning. The strenuous hike to the top of Steamboat is short – less than a mile – but climbs nearly 600 feet, offering sweeping panoramic views of the valley below.

AFTERNOON

Stop for lunch at one of Sheridan County's fine mountain lodges - you'll pass Arrowhead Lodge first; their burgers are the perfect fuel for an adventurous appetite. Bear Lodge and Elk View Inn feature fine pies for those with a sweet tooth. All three lodges sit in scenic surroundings, and offer ample opportunity for wildlife viewing

- keep your eyes peeled for elk, deer, moose, and more.

Continue along Highway 14 to Burgess Junction, and take Highway 14A to the trailhead for Porcupine Falls; one of the Bighorn's most beautiful secrets, the falls pour out of a granite wall and tumble hundreds of feet to a pool below. This is your own private swimming hole for the afternoon.

If you have the legs for it, continue on the dirt road for a few more miles; you'll end at the trailhead for Bucking Mule Falls. The hike to the canyon and the falls overlook weaves through forests, crosses shallow streams, and reveals a side of the Bighorns often unseen.

Finally, end your afternoon of exploration at over 10,000 feet with a visit to the historic Medicine Wheel – this ancient ceremonial Indian site is still used today for cultural and ritualistic events by the Crow and Northern Cheyenne. A sunset visit is a surreal experience.

If your legs are weary, take the back roads out to the hamlet of Story, tucked into the mountains south of Sheridan; here you can visit the Story Fish Hatchery, providing visitors with a unique opportunity to observe fish and local wildlife.

EVENING

By now you've earned your appetite and your dinner; head back to Sheridan to dine in Wyoming's culinary and craft capital. You could try wild game at the cozy Cowboy Cafe, hand-tossed pies at Powder River Pizza, or the freshest Bighorn catch at Wyoming Cattle & Creek.

And since there is no rest for the wild at heart, don your warm and woolies and prepare for an evening out under the stars; the new Skylab at Fort Phil Kearny is an inspiring way to experience Rocky Mountain cosmology, the history of the frontier, and the unforgettable stories of this important Indian Wars Battle Site.

EXPERIENCE THE BEST OF THE ICONIC BIGHORN MOUNTAINS

When you finally return to Sheridan, bursting at the seams with a hundred years' worth of frontier history, outdoor grit and local insight, you'll be in a fine position to share Wyoming's tall tales, historic gossip and spectacular stories with your friends and family.

ONE DAY IN HISTORY

MORNING ☕

Sheridan's historic heart beats with the stories of cowboys, Indians, battle sites, ranching legends, and western outlaws. Prepare for a day of historic immersion with breakfast at PO News & Flagstaff Cafe, a local haunt with over 100 years of history, or grab something to go from the much-loved Java Moon.

Less than an hour from downtown, near Crow Agency, Montana, is the Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument. The site memorializes the US Army's 7th Cavalry and the Lakotas and Cheyennes in one of the Indian's last armed efforts to preserve their way of life.

Back in Sheridan County, tour other important Indian Wars battle sites, including Fort Phil Kearney, the Wagon Box Fight, and the Connor Battlefield. The Connor Battlefield, otherwise known as the site of the Battle of the Tongue River, is located at the City Park in the Town of Ranchester.

Your next stop is The Brinton Museum, located on the 620-acre Quarter Circle A Ranch in the Town of Big Horn. The museum offers an authentic view into the life of Bradford Brinton, a Western gentleman and art collector who was a patron of many of the most celebrated 19th and 20th-century Western artists.

The Brinton Ranch House, originally built in 1892, was expanded in 1927-28 to accommodate the Brinton's extensive collections of Indian artifacts, art, historic documents, books and over 600 oils, watercolors and sketches by American artists including Audubon, Borein, Gollings, Kleiber, Remington and Russell. Lunch at the Brinton Bistro comes with sublime mountain views and an opportunity to wax poetic about the museum's immense collection of artifacts.

Passing back through Big Horn, take some time to visit the community's main street, home to a number of historic properties, including the beautiful Big Horn Mercantile.

Stop at the Bozeman Trail Museum; Built in 1879 by the Rock Creek Stage Line, the blacksmith shop, now home to the museum, originally satisfied the needs of travelers on the nearby Bozeman Trail.

AFTERNOON ☀️

The Trail End State Historic Site is a 14,000 sq.-ft. historic Flemish-revival style mansion built and inhabited by former Wyoming Governor and U.S. Senator John B. Kendrick. Kendrick was a successful cattleman when he commissioned the house, and he was only beginning his political career; when he became governor in 1914 and a senator three years later, Trail End became his summer home. The house was added to the National Register of Historic Places on February 26, 1970. Set aside an hour for a thorough tour of the property and adjacent Kendrick Park.

The Historic Sheridan Inn, constructed in 1892, was one of the first hotels in Sheridan. Conceptualized and developed by William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody, Cody directed hotel management, and even auditioned new members for his legendary "Wild West Show" from the front porch. In 2013, Bob and Dana Townsend became the newest owners of the Inn, bringing 21st-century luxury to the 19th-century building. The Inn is now open as a hotel for overnight stays, banquet events, weddings, and tours. Each of the twenty-two rooms have been revitalized to reflect on "Buffalo Bill" and twenty-one other key characters in his life.

Sheridan's Veterans Hospital is located on the site of historic Fort Mackenzie. In 1899, Congress appropriated funds for a permanent garrison on this site, and by June 18 of that year a detachment of the First Cavalry had arrived. In November of 1901, the 2nd and 3rd Battalions of the 18th Infantry were garrisoned at Fort Mackenzie. By August of 1902, companies G and H of the Tenth Cavalry, known as the Buffalo Soldiers, arrived. These soldiers,

ONE DAY AS AN ARTIST

MORNING ☕

Sheridan is the Cultural Capital of Wyoming, and features numerous galleries, exhibits, exhibitions, and art collections open to the public. Craft culture and maker spaces abound - there's plenty of opportunity to have a hands-on experience in shaping your own artistic vision (and vacation).

Arrive early at Red Velvet Bakery in the heart of downtown and experience scratch baking at its finest, or get down with some old-fashioned American cooking at the Silver Spur Café. This should give you ample time to check the Community Calendar for art exhibits, classes, or upcoming shows.

Take Sheridan's self-guided Historic Walking Tour and enjoy more than 40 public art pieces and numerous buildings listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Maps are available at the Chamber of Commerce, Downtown Sheridan Association, or Sheridan Travel & Tourism's website.

Stop by the WYO Theater to pick up tickets for tonight's show (whatever's on the marquee is sure to please - trust us). When the WYO Theater opened in 1923 as the Lotus, newspaper headlines proclaimed it "Wyoming's Wonder Picture Palace!" The theater remains one of Sheridan's hallmark attractions.

Main Street is home to a number of art outposts, including The Bozeman Trail Gallery, Main Frame, the Don King Museum, and SAGE Community Arts.

Be one of the first to experience the new exhibits at the Sheridan County Historical Society & Museum, then take the short drive to the Town of Dayton; this picturesque mountain town features the Hans Kleiber studio Museum, Sonja Caywood Studio (by appointment only), and Gallery On Main, featuring a fabulous collection of local art (and an excellent cafe). Just down the street is the Dayton Mercantile, known for delicious sandwiches, shakes, and Wyoming curios.

Ranchester, located between Sheridan and Dayton, is home to the T-Rex Natural History Museum. Take photos with the massive skull of a female T-Rex named Sue, and explore dioramas, raptor fossils, geological curiosities, crystals, and more.

Grab a bite to eat at the Wyoming Buckshot Saloon (yes, you want to try the elk and bison brats, and you know you deserve the onion rings).

AFTERNOON ☀️

The afternoon is all about getting your hands dirty. Book a class to throw some clay on one of Red Bison Studios pottery wheels, or exercise your inner Gollings at The Paint Post. Classes range from an hour to three or more, depending on the medium or piece being made. Red Bison's Stephen Mullins has produced pieces for Surf Wyoming, the WYO Winter Rodeo, each of Sheridan's breweries, and many more local businesses.

Interactive art doesn't end there - consider a workshop with Archetype

Collective, where you'll learn to craft rings, earrings, or even pet tags. Archetype's new maker space is located at The Union at Montgomery; The Union hosts a variety of workshops and classes in a variety of disciplines. SAGE Community Arts, located next door, likewise features lectures, workshops, an annual local photography gala, and much more.

Take your show on the road and visit the Ucross Art Gallery; exhibitions are evocative, insightful and beautiful. Ucross is less than 40 miles from Sheridan; pastoral beauty is the highlight of the drive.

On your way back to Sheridan, stop in Banner to visit Turned Antiques (Saturdays only, 10am-4pm), where you'll find over 10,000-sq.ft of early American antiques and contemporary home furnishings.

ART IS AN INTERACTIVE EXPERIENCE IN THE WILD WEST

EVENING 🌙

Art can be exhausting, but you're not through yet; steady yourself for an evening on the town at Frackelton's Fine Food & Spirits. Frack's features more beautiful local art, and excellent modern fare - the tuna poke is legendary. Or fill your boots with something substantial at Wyoming's Rib & Chop House. Dressed to impress, head out for a night of pomp and paegentry. The Edward A. Whitney Gallery at the new Whitney Center for the Arts at Sheridan College is small, but exhibits pack a punch - visit the WCA's website for information on performances in Kinnison Hall, the exclamation point on your day of experiential art.

In 1923, Ernest Hemingway visited Big Horn, the Folly Ranch, and Spear-O-Wigwam on a trout-fishing expedition he called "squalation." It was at the famed Spear-O where he finished writing his classic novel "A Farewell to Arms."

Hemingway claimed his favorite two places were Wyoming and Africa. "This is a cockeyed wonderful country, looks like Spain, swell people," he wrote to a friend.

THE MINT BAR

Folks come to Sheridan to get cozy with cowboys, and there's no better way to experience the icons and outlaws and frontier legends of Wyoming than during WYO Rodeo Week, Sheridan's premiere cultural attraction.

Rodeo Week features the First Peoples' Pow Wow, Rodeo Parade, Boot Kick Off, Pancake Breakfast, street dances, the Rodeo Carnival, World Championship Indian Relay Races, and four nights of epic PRCA Rodeo performances. WYO Rodeo Week takes place every July; more than 25,000 rodeo fans pass through the gates of the Sheridan County Fairgrounds.

Other annual western events include the Sheridan County Rodeo, Bots Sots Remount, the Leather Crafter's Trade Show, Eaton's Horse Drive, the Brinton Leather Show, and Don King Days at the Big Horn Equestrian Center.

Don King Days is a raucous celebration of western life, and includes cowboy polo, black smithing, bronc riding, and more. The event, hosted annually over Labor Day Weekend, brings in cowboys and horsemen from across the Rocky Mountain region.

One of Sheridan's best kept secrets is the community's deep connection to polo. Sheridan County is home to two major polo venues in the Flying H Polo Club and the Big Horn Equestrian Center. Polo matches run from June through September and are open to the public.

COWBOY UP, PARTNER

Consider a stay at one of Sheridan County's ranches, including iconic Eaton's Ranch, the nation's oldest working dude ranch. Canyon Ranch, offers a sublime western vibe complete with horseback riding, fly fishing, and hiking. Meanwhile, Sheridan County's mountain lodges are all about rustic charm and easy access to the great outdoors. Lastly, the stately rental properties at The Powder Horn Golf & Country Club could be your introduction to the glamorous world of competitive polo.

Across Sheridan the intrepid traveler may find bits and pieces of gold rush history, Prohibition-era speakeasies, the hangouts of Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, Bozeman Trail icons, and other legendary outposts.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP INDIAN RELAY RACES

ONE DAY AS A COWBOY*

*OK, first thing - you need more than one day to experience the cowboy way. Plan to spend at least three days immersed in the legend and lore of local icons and outlaws. You'll be glad you did.

They say timing is everything, and for the most authentic western experience in America, visit Sheridan during WYO Rodeo Week. If you can't be here during the WYO, consider an immersive experience like the Bots Sots Remount Horse Sale, Don King Days, or the Sheridan WYO Winter Rodeo (for fans of skijoring, hot cider, and frosty mountain peaks).

DAY 1

You've booked a stay at one of Sheridan County's legendary ranches or mountain lodges, and you wake up to the sound of elk bugling or roosters crowing. Your day as a cowboy is just beginning. Spend an hour tossing a fly line into a stream, cover a bit of ground on horseback, or photograph moose, elk, deer, or dozens of beautiful migratory birds as you take in the beauty and majesty of the mountains.

If you're staying somewhere closer to town, it's time for breakfast; head to Main Street Corner Cafe for chicken fried steak and gravy. Yes, you read that correctly.

Travel south to friendly Johnson County, and the Hole-in-the-Wall Outlaw Hideout (2.5 hour drive). The Hole-in-the-Wall is a colorful and scenic red sandstone escarpment that is rich in legends of outlaw activity from the late 1800s, most notably Butch Cassidy and the Wild Bunch Gang. The "hole" is a gap in the Red Wall that, legend has it, was used secretly by outlaws to move horses and cattle from the area. Even Jesse James is reported to have spent time here. Contact Sheridan Travel & Tourism for directions and trail conditions.

Stop in the hamlet of Story on your way back; the Wagon Box Inn maintains beautiful cabins and a spectacular outdoor restaurant that specializes in prime rib and steak. Hungry yet?

DAY 2

Plan on getting your boots dirty today. You're going to cowboy up for breakfast at Midtown Cafe on Main Street before heading out for another day of action.

If it's late May, you're in luck; the Eaton's Horse Drive is an annual tradition that captures the imagination of the community. Cowboys from Eaton's Ranch drive their herd in from winter grazing areas straight through town - down 5th Street in front of the Sheridan Inn, across Main, and out toward the ranch.

ICONS & OUTLAWS STILL ROAM THIS WILD COUNTRY

If you're a guest at one of the ranches, it's time to saddle up for the pack trip of a lifetime. There's nothing like riding into the Bighorns with the sun at your back and the mountains towering above you.

If you're not a guest at a ranch, you can book a pack trip with Range Land Enterprises or Nelson Outfitters. Expeditions range from two to five days. Contact Sheridan Travel & Tourism for details.

Belly up to the bar at The Mint, the famed former speakeasy on Main. Tip one back and take the trophy tour, explore history through photographs, and check out the thousands of brands on the wall panels.

DAY 3

Today we're going to test your mettle. If you're here in the winter, we hope you'll stay for the WYO Winter Rodeo (annual, February). Skijoring, a sport where a horse and rider tow a skier along a snowy course marked by jumps and other obstacles, is the tentpole event. Are you cowboy enough to strap on the skis? The skijoring course on Broadway runs between Black Tooth Brewing Co. and Luminous Brewhouse.

If you're visiting another time of year, head to King's Saddlery to witness the masters of rope making and leather crafting at work, and try tossing a rope yourself in the Don King Museum. Or book an archery class at Rocky Mountain Discount Sports, and let your inner Robin Hood loose.

You could spend your afternoon enjoying polo in Big Horn, or at a picnic at Kendrick Park; the horse shoe competitions at Kendrick can get fierce.

Keep your eye on the community calendar for live country music performances at the WYO Theater, Trails End Concert Park, and Luminous Brewhouse. Sheridan knows how to rock.

LUMINOUS BREWHOUSE

The culture of craft is as quintessentially Wyoming as long days on the ranch, bucking broncs, and snow-capped peaks. Sheridan is home to a vast spectrum of craftsfolk, including world-renowned leather crafters, brewers, metalsmiths, carpenters, chefs, sculptors, painters and writers – maverick artisans that are often celebrated for their steadfast belief in the relevance of craft in a world where design and aesthetic are increasingly influenced by technology, media, and instant distribution.

CRAFT IS KING

When most folk think craft, they think of beer, wine, and spirits - and so it follows that Sheridan is home to three breweries, a distillery, a winery, and a namesake brew that was recently reintroduced to the world (thank you, Sheridan Beer Co.). But Sheridan County is more than an ale tale - we're home to culinary hotspots like Cottonwood Kitchen + Home and Verdello; both host engaging cooking classes and regular tastings.

Fashion designer Jesse Smith's Western Grace has in less than a year become the most revered outpost for bespoke women and men's clothing in all of Wyoming. Weatherby crafts the finest hunting rifles in the world right in our own backyard (no wonder, when the hunting in the Bighorns is so spectacular). Tucker Goss and Trevor Clark have kickstarted their fabrication and metalwork business in the old Sheridan Iron Works facility, and honor traditional methods and techniques of age-old blacksmiths (in their craft-forward methods). The local food truck scene is booming, with outfits like Bonafide, WYO Thai, Wicked Smoke, Hetty's Pizza, the Burger Wagon, Big Horn Catering, and El Rodeo conjuring culinary wizardry daily.

See what we're saying? Sheridan County is one seriously crafty place. There's a good chance that when you walk around downtown, the hat on that guy's head, the beautiful dress that lady is wearing, and the beer those friendly folk are drinking were all hand-crafted right here in Sheridan, Wyoming, USA.

THE TOOTH WILL PREVAIL

Black Tooth Brewing has garnered critical acclaim since it opened in 2010. Banners from national competitions hang throughout the tap room, and you would be hard pressed to find a bar or restaurant within a hundred miles that isn't serving at least one BTB brew. Black Tooth has become one of the largest breweries in Wyoming, growth spurred by a fundamental dedication to producing top-quality beer with the finest possible ingredients.

THE KINGS OF THE WEST

For a full appreciation for the American Cowboy and his craft, visit King's Saddlery. Master leathercrafters are frequently sighted in the workshop; watch them put the finishing touches on a one-of-a-kind saddle, or a handcrafted piece of custom cowboy kit.

Tom Balding's Bits and Spurs are considered staple pieces of Sheridan's western experience - he's known for design innovation, precision and flawless finish work. A visit to his showroom is an opportunity to glimpse beautiful pendants, buckles, and other pieces of art.

Big Horn Design's flagship Surf Wyoming brand is known across the nation for its bold, singular Wyoming aesthetic.

Since 1909, Sheridan Tent & Awning has been designing and manufacturing canvas tents, wall tents, outfitter tents, hunting tents and cowboy range tents. For hunting enthusiasts, glamping or family camping, it's hard to beat a sturdy canvas tent made in the USA.

THE SPIRIT OF THE WEST

The original Kolts Fine Spirits, established in 2001, released the handcrafted Koltiska Original Liqueur, followed by KO 90, each an embodiment of the spirit of the American West. In early 2016 Kolts Fine Spirits became the Koltiska Distillery, and the company opened a production facility and tasting room that offers old favorites, new products, and craft cocktails inspired by more than 100 years of local family lore.

USA GROWN, WYO CELLARED

307 Wines celebrate the life and times of legendary horse trainer Buck Brannaman, "Longmire" author Craig Johnson, bronc rider and recording artist Chris LeDoux, as well as the icons of Wyoming itself, including the Grand Tetons, Devils Tower, and the Flaming Gorge. 307 operates The Vault, a tasting room located in a historic bank building on Main Street.

TRUE BREW ENLIGHTENMENT

One of the finest brewery secrets in the American West, Luminous Brewhouse is a purveyor of malty gold that has carved out a niche as a bespoke brewer of unique beers. The Luminous taproom is always rocking with live music and is frequently charged by special event energy, and features a dazzling array of brews, sure to please suds-o-philes and craft newbs alike.

FOR THE PUBLIC

Smith Alley Brewing's public house opened to great fanfare in January 2019. Family-friendly and focused on hand-crafted ales and clever pub grub, Smith Alley's historic bones and beautiful outdoor seating spaces are poised to please crowds all year long.

A SPIN ON THE CLASSICS

Chef Travis Sorenson has created a restaurant that fuses West Coast sensibilities with Wyoming culinary traditions. birch is a dynamic contemporary American eatery with a focus on local, seasonal ingredients. For instance, you couldn't possibly know that you can't live without a Reuben spring roll until you try one, and the road to gastro bliss is paved with braised short ribs (milk-braised, bone in bison ribs, that is). Clever cocktails and scratch-made desserts round out the experience.

WESTERN HOSPITALITY

The Mint Bar opened in 1907; even Prohibition, enacted in 1919, couldn't stem the flow of liquid courage, as a speakeasy was kept running out back until the end of the Congressional dry spell in 1933. The bar was remodeled shortly after its official reopening and has remained relatively unchanged since the 1940s.

THE ARTIST IN ALL OF US

Local artists who have found a national audience include Sonja Caywood, Joel Ostlind, and David McDougall; David's bison portraits are available at the Painted Skull Studio.

At the turn of the 20th century, a local dentist named Dr. William Frackelton was known to moonlight as a bare-knuckle boxer. If you were on the receiving end of one of his powerful blows, chances were pretty good that the good doctor would be the one putting your chompers back in place the next day. Frackleton's Fine Food & Spirits is named in his honor.

December 10, 2019 marks the 150th anniversary of women's suffrage in the Equality State, and we hope you will join us in celebrating the sesquicentennial of the landmark territorial legislative decision. In 1869, Wyoming passed the first law in United States history granting women the right to vote and the right to hold public office, a historic milestone that came more than 50 years before the ratification of the 19th amendment to the US Constitution.

THE WOMEN OF SHERIDAN, WYO.

The State of Wyoming and the Wyoming Office of Tourism will mark the anniversary with activities, events, retreats and must-visit historic destinations that commemorate the spirit of Wyoming as the first frontier for American women.

Throughout the year, Sheridan Travel & Tourism will pay tribute to the icons, outlaws, storytellers and mavericks who make Sheridan their home. Each month we will feature an artist, innovator, pioneer or personality with ties to Sheridan and roots in Wyoming. Our program includes a video series, essays, podcasts, stories and more. Join us in celebrating all the Women of Sheridan, Wyo.

The 90th Sheridan WYO Rodeo kicks off July 7th, 2020, and brings to town four nights of spectacular PRCA sanctioned events featuring the world's top cowboys and cowgirls. In addition to the rodeo performances and morning slack competitions, Rodeo Week includes the First Peoples' Pow Wow, World Champion Indian Relay Races, parade, street dances, Boot Kick-Off, carnival, pancake breakfast, Beds Along the Bighorns races, Sneakers & Spurs Run, and more. For those counting along at home, that's 90 years of pomp, pageantry, red-blooded Americana, thrilling athletic feats, and tremendous displays of hometown pride.

town. The thread that binds all of these people, the singular sentiment that encourages them to volunteer their time to organize the event or to put their bodies on the line in the arena, is a love for their community.

Visitors – tourists, folk coming home for the week, and those just passing through - they sense this when they visit Sheridan. My staff meets with hundreds of these visitors during Rodeo Week, and they often hear of how people are stunned to see what the community does as a whole to welcome the world to Sheridan, Wyoming. The same goes for the media we host every

But the truth about the WYO Rodeo is that it's not about rodeo at all. WYO Rodeo Week is really about culture, history, pride, family, and the enduring legacy of Sheridan County's finest men and women. That the WYO continues to grow, year after year, both in number of spectators it attracts as well as in the number of athletes and participants, is a testament to the drawing power of Wyoming's history and heritage.

I have the unique honor of seeing the WYO Rodeo from the inside and the outside every year. I am fortunate to glimpse behind the scenes at the work put in by the WYO Rodeo Board and its substantial force of volunteers; I get to meet barrel racers and bronc riders and rodeo clowns when we put together promotional material and advertising campaigns; and I get to see how the City and the County work through the logistical challenges of an event that doubles the population of our small year – in 2018, we had guests from C-SPAN, Outside Magazine, National Public Radio, Ride TV, and numerous other outlets in town to experience the WYO. They're blown away with the rodeo experience, the beauty of the mountains (one reporter told me that he took over 700 photos of a moose near Bear Lodge), the buzz of our historic downtown, and the friendly, welcoming nature of our local people. And what's never lost is that sterling sense of local pride that bubbles to the surface every July. It may manifest in what we wear – I do indeed don a cowboy hat for one week a year – or how we celebrate, but what remains the same for every resident of Sheridan is the pride we wear, like a badge of honor, upon all our sleeves.

Be safe, have fun, and Get WYO'd.
